

FREE EDUCATIONAL ONLINE RESOURCES:

What else can you do to pass the time, while also nurturing your child's education?

Charlotte on the Cheap has really done a FANTASTIC job putting together free, fun, educational resources all in one place. Check out these links for everything from free educational websites, free day-by-day curriculum, live streams of concerts, museums, art lessons and free ways for kids to continue reading a plethora of online books:

21 fun, educational, and free kids' websites, including free courses from Scholastic

<https://www.charlotteonthecheap.com/educational-kids-websites/>

Live streams for kids, including children's concerts, zoo visits, authors reading, art lessons, more

<https://www.charlotteonthecheap.com/virtual-events-kids/>

Stuck at home? Charlotte Mecklenburg Library offers a ton of FREE online resources

<https://www.charlotteonthecheap.com/charlotte-mecklenburg-library-online-resources/>

If you live in Mecklenburg County, sign up for a Virtual Library Card to have access to 1,000s of online books for free:

<https://www.cmlibrary.org/getacard>

50 activities when gets are stuck at home:

<https://www.charlotteonthecheap.com/inside-activities-kids/>